President Park Group has been a pioneer in the serviced apartment industry in Thailand and presently operates three serviced apartments and two hotels in Bangkok under the management of Compass Hospitality Co. Ltd. Since April 2009, the President Park Group of hotels and serviced apartments has been offering a Super Suite Deal in which guests who stay three nights pay for only two, in addition to being rewarded with added value benefits. The promotion applies to all its suites and concludes at the end of May.

The package also features complimentary buffet breakfast for two persons, daily local newspaper delivery, and 10% discount on laundry, food & beverage, and overseas calls. As part of the 'sweet suite' deal, guests may flash their keycard holder and enjoy complimentary entry and fabulous discounts at prestigious partner venues of the President Park Group such as Bed Supper Club, Q Bar, Temples Irish Bar, and Bangkok's very first Manchester United Restaurant & Bar, among others. All are located within close vicinity of the President Park Group of hotels and serviced apartments.

In other President Park Group news, early April saw President Solitaire proudly playing host to Bryan Robson and Steven Robert James during their Bangkok trip to visit the country's very first Manchester United Restaurant & Bar and meet with fans. Robson and James were warmly welcomed by Affendy Ismail, General Manager and Derrick Gooch, Resident Manager of President Solitaire, together with the Manchester United Restaurant & Bar team. The President Palace Hotel, which will be opening soon, will be the home of Bangkok's very first Manchester United, located on Sukhumvit Soi 11.

Bryan Robson is a well-known former English football manager and former player, widely recognized for his midfield role for Manchester United as well as being the longest-serving captain in the club's history. He was also the former manager of Sheffield United after being relieved of his duties to his former team. In March 2008, Robson returned to Manchester United as an ambassador for the club. Meanwhile, Steven Robert James is a former Manchester United player who made his first team debut for the Club against Liverpool in 1966 and scored four goals in his 161 appearances during his United career.
